Breaking Down Silos: The Chief Information Officer Perspective

Societies are by their nature independent and silo-prone.

How do you decide where to focus IT's efforts and how do you ensure that the value of those efforts endure?

Breaking Down Silos: The Chief Information Officer Perspective

Regulatory mandates can test a decentralized organization's ability to achieving compliance with an economy of effort.

Can you speak to GDPR in this context?
Has it helped or complicated IT's agenda?
